

ROSALIND CARROLL APPOINTED AS CEO
OF PERSONAL INJURIES ASSESSMENT BOARD

Friday 29 November 2019: The Personal Injuries Assessment Board has announced the appointment of Rosalind Carroll as Chief Executive Officer. Ms Carroll will be taking up the role in March 2020.

Ms Carroll has extensive senior management experience, and has since 2016 been the CEO of the Residential Tenancies Board (RTB), the independent regulatory body for the private rented sector. In that role she has led significant regulatory reform, change and digital transformation processes.

In addition to her role at RTB, Ms Carroll's experience as a senior executive has included positions at the Housing Agency as Head of Regulation and Head of Housing Services, as well as in the Department of the Environment and Dublin City Council, covering housing and programme management. She holds MSc and BA degrees.

Dermot Divilly, Chairperson of PIAB, said: "I am very confident Rosalind will do an outstanding job for the organisation. Her experience will be invaluable in the important work ahead continuing the delivery of highly efficient services, in contributing to the reform process underway in the sector, and in progressing further digitisation of PIAB's services."

ENDS

Note: The Personal Injuries Assessment Board (PIAB) is Ireland's independent state body which assesses personal injury compensation. PIAB delivers its services in a fair, timely and cost-efficient manner. It assesses compensation in respect of personal injuries suffered by people in motor accidents, work place accidents and public liability accidents.

For further information, please contact:

PIAB Corporate Services: 01 463 4536 / 463 4018

www.piab.ie